FROM PRINCIPAL'S DESK

“On International Women's Day, honor the strength, resilience, and essential contributions of women in shaping families, communities, and the future. As the principal, acknowledge female educators and students as the architects of society, motivating them to chase their dreams with bravery. Commit to creating a safe, inclusive environment that promotes equality. Thank you.

EXTRACIRRICULAR & CO-CIRRICULAR

Events celebrated in this month .

International Women's Day

Our College celebrated International Women's Day (March 8) with various events focusing on empowerment, gender equality, and recognizing female achievements.. These gatherings often included special felicitation ceremonies to honor female staff and students, featuring music, dance, and the distribution of snacks or tokens of appreciation.

EID & SAHROOL CELEBRATION

Our college celebrated the joy of unity by hosting a vibrant joint celebration for Eid and Sarhul, bringing students together to honor diverse traditions. Cultural programs highlighted the significance of both festivals, with students presenting traditional dances and songs. Students shared sweets and traditional food, strengthening bonds of friendship.
