FROM PRINCIPAL'S DESK

The success of all students at our college is guaranteed through the provision of a comprehensive, student-focused, balanced, and well-structured curriculum, alongside a college-wide commitment to student welfare that emphasizes the positive acknowledgement of student accomplishments.

I firmly believe that an educational system which nurtures the creativity of students is far superior to one that does not. Creativity is the birthplace of new ideas and the catalyst for progress. As stated, "Imagination is more important than knowledge"; knowledge pertains to what we already understand, while imagination propels individuals and societies forward. It is through imagination that innovation is born. GWP BOKARO will undoubtedly prioritize imaginative and play-based learning approaches.

EXTRACURRICULAR

Events celebrated in this month .

FIRE EXTINGUISHER DEMONSTRATION

A fire extinguisher demonstration program is designed to instruct students at our college on the correct usage of fire extinguishers. It encompasses various elements such as the different types of extinguishers, the appropriate circumstances for their use, and the PASS technique (Pull, Aim, Squeeze, Sweep).

A concluding year photography session at college encapsulates the culmination of years of dedication and friendship.

This occasion serves to honor academic accomplishments, forge enduring memories with peers, and eagerly anticipate what lies ahead.

Final year project presentation final year project at our college represents a significant academic undertaking that enables students to showcase their knowledge and skills by addressing a real-world issue or project relevant to their area of study. This endeavor frequently encompasses research, design, experimentation, or a blend of these components. Typically, the project is overseen by a faculty advisor and concludes with a report, presentation, or prototype.

FAREWELL PROGRAM

During the farewell program, diligent students who excelled academically by achieving the top position in every semester, as well as those who secured the highest placements, along with students involved in extracurricular activities, were all recognized and commended by the principal of our college.
